Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Friday 26 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cloudy start to Saturday then sunny spells developing.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry with some clear spells this evening. Cloud and occasional rain will then cross from the west overnight, with the northwest clearing again by morning. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Saturday:
Cloudy start with a little rain in east, soon dying out. It will brighten up later in the morning with sunny spells developing, best in west. Mild with light winds. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
It will be a fine, settled spell of weather into the start of next week with good spells of sunshine. Perhaps some early fog patches and low cloud.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.